Of The West Virginia
Future Farmers of America Association
Supplement 1983-1989

Sixty-Second Anniversary Convention
July 11-14, 1990
Cedar Lakes
Ripley, West Virginia

This is the 62nd Anniversary of the West Virginia Association of Future Farmers of America. The first fifty year history was published in 1978. A five year supplement 1978-83 was published in 1983. The six year supplement 1983-89 is being published to up-date the history of the association.

The author, recognized as a historian for the FFA and vocational agriculture in West Virginia, takes great pride in the information that he has recorded during the forty years that he was actively engaged in working with the FFA and during the past twenty-one years of his retirement.

The contacts made through the years with members, parents, advisors and friends of the FFA have been a real source of enjoyment and provides many pleasant memories.

We can point with pride to the many achievements of the past six years listed in this booklet. The record has been made and this booklet can preserve it for future reference.

It is hoped that you will enjoy reviewing it from time to time. The publication of the record will be worthwhile if it challenges our future FFA members to work a little harder or try once more to achieve a personal FFA goal.

Congratulations are in order to all members listed in this booklet and let us dedicate this publication both to those FFA members who have made the record possible and to those who will make the record in the future even more outstanding.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE

The purpose of this booklet is to record the activities and events of the Association during the past seven years, 1983-89. The information in this supplement, the 1978-83 supplement, and in the 50 Year History published in 1978, brings up-to-date the history of the association on the 62nd Anniversary.

Each degree recipient listed, each award winner noted, and each event mentioned recalls to mind the hundreds of individual members, chapter advisors, parents, friends of the FFA, teacher educators and staff members who worked hard to make these awards possible. Without the wholehearted support of all, it would have been impossible to accomplish the results which ranks the association one of the best in the nation.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgement is given to John Holt, superintendent, Cedar Lakes FFA-FHA Camp and Conference Center for the information furnished about Cedar Lakes; to Carl S. Thomas, former state FFA advisor, for his guidance and help in reviewing the manuscript; to Donald Michael, state advisor, and Ronald Grimes, state executive secretary/treasurer, for suggestions and help in organizing the material included in the booklet; and to Liz Bryant, secretary, for typing the notes and preparing the original manuscript.

COMMENTS From State FFA Advisor

This booklet was written to update the history of the West Virginia FFA Association in its sixty-second year.

This publication honors the present and past members of the West Virginia FFA Association. The names and events recorded are a reminder of the many accomplishments of individual members and of FFA chapters of former years.

The history recorded herein is a proud one. The success of our organization is due largely to the dedicated efforts of present and past chapter advisors and to the work of local and state officers. Valuable contributions to the FFA have also been made by our many loyal supporters, friends, teachers, educators, and staff members.

It is hoped that this history will challenge present and future FFA members as they prepare to accept the many challenges that face America, now and in the future.

A special thanks is due Mr. W. H. Wayman, retired state FFA advisor. Mr. Wayman has given a great deal of his time over the years to promote and strengthen the Agriculture Education/FFA program.

The state FFA officers and Mr. Ronald W. Grimes, state executive secretary/treasurer, join me in commending Mr. Wayman for his interest and dedicated effort that has resulted in the completion of the 62nd Anniversary History of the West Virginia FFA Association.

CEDAR LAKES
WEST VIRGINIA FFA-FHA CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER
RIPLEY, WV 25271
By John M. Holt, Superintendent

Cedar Lakes is on the move. Since the camp was officially opened in 1955, Cedar Lakes has grown to be the premier conference center in West Virginia. As the home of the West Virginia Future Farmers and Future Homemakers of America, Cedar Lakes has accommodated over fifteen hundred FFA-FHA members each year. By providing a beautiful setting, outstanding food, and an opportunity to learn leadership skills. We hope that Cedar Lakes has impacted favorably on every FFA/FHA member that has crossed our bridge.

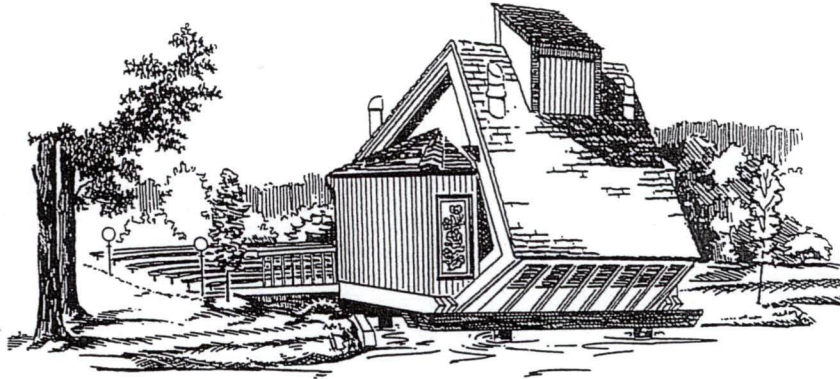

Nineteen eighty-six (1986) was a very memorable year for Cedar Lakes, because it was the year that the State FFA Convention returned home. It is always a proud day for the employees at Cedar Lakes to see the FFA/FHA-HERO members, with their smiling faces and inquisitive minds, enjoying the facilities that older FFA-FHA members and advisors worked so hard to obtain. Most of the facilities at Cedar Lakes were constructed from monies or labor donated by FFA/FHA members or chapters. The most recent example of this, is the beautiful meditation chapel, dedicated in 1987, that is located on the "finger lake" in front of the Lakeview Dining Hall. This project illustrates the tremendous loyalty that the FFA/FHA members have shown.

Our theme, "A setting for learning," personified what others hope to obtain at Cedar Lakes. In addition to the FFA/FHA, Cedar Lakes considers itself home to such other educational youth groups as VICA, DECA, TSA and FBLA. Over two thousand high school band members utilize Cedar Lakes for five weeks in July and August to begin preparing for their football half-time and competition shows.

The thousands of people that enjoy Cedar Lakes each year, need to tip their caps to every West Virginia FFA/FHA member that contributed to making the Cedar Lakes dream a reality. Each time Cedar Lakes receives an accolade, they are also thanking the FFA/FHA members.

We are currently seeking two new projects for Cedar Lakes. One of the projects is a fifty room lodge and the other project is a multi-purpose building that will accommodate meetings of up to 750 people. Both of these projects will enhance Cedar Lakes along with providing better facilities for all FFA/FHA meetings.

The National Emblem of the Future Farmers of America is significant and meaningful in every detail. Used by members in all recognized units of the organization, it is made up of five symbols: the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn, which is surmounted by the American eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear also the words, "Agricultural Education" and the letters, "FFA." The owl is symbolic of wisdom and knowledge; the plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is emblematic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are trained and have learned to cooperate; the cross section of an ear of corn represents common agricultural interests since corn is native to America and is grown in every state; and the eagle is indicative of the national scope of the organization.

THE AIM AND PURPOSES

The primary aim of the FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The specific purposes for which this organization was formed are as follows:

1. To develop competent, aggressive, rural, and agricultural leadership.
2. To create and nurture a love of country life.
3. To strengthen the confidence of students of vocational agriculture in themselves and their work.
4. To create more interest in the intelligent choice of agricultural occupations.
5. To encourage members in the development of individual farming programs and establishment in agricultural careers.
6. To encourage members to improve the farm home and its surroundings.
7. To participate in worthy undertakings for the improvement of agriculture.
8. To develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism.
9. To participate in cooperative effort.
10. To encourage and practice thrift.
11. To encourage improvement in scholarship.
12. To provide and encourage the development of organized rural recreational activities.

THE FFA CREED

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds-achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm, or to be engaged in other agricultural pursuit, is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of agricultural life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I cannot deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of progressive agriculturists to serve our own and the public interest in producing and marketing the product of our toil.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so--for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions of our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

(The creed was written by E. M. Tiffany, and adopted at the 3rd National Convention of the FFA. Revised at the 38th Convention, 1965).
